

WILMINGTON, N. C.:

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1873.

STATE NEWS.

Hillsboro' is determined to have a look.

C. J. Rogers, ex-Radical P. M., of Raleigh wants to be a Mayor.

Gov. Vance has been selected to deliver the Memorial Address at Charlotte.

Dr. Turner, of Shelby, in a card to the Charlotte Observer, denies that there were no meetings in Shelby.

In Davis county, there is a rail fence which has been standing fifty-four years, without any repairing except some rails placed on top.

B. C. Badger having accepted the office of U. S. Attorney of the Eastern District of this State, on Thursday tendered to the Governor his resignation as a member of the House of Representatives from Wake county.

On Sunday afternoon, lost the carriage-house and barn of Mr. Sam'l. Smith, near Enderfield, took fire, and the two houses, a lot of fodder, grain, mending utensils, cotton seed, &c., were destroyed to the amount of $900.

The Raleigh News says: A portion writing from Washington county, states that the Courthouse of 41st county, together with the records of the county, were destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. The fire was supposed to be accidental.

A negro man named John, living with William Tappe, in the Hillsboro' vicinity, before the fire awoke to sleep, wrapped up in a blanket. Quicks have been expected, he awoke wrapped up in flames. It is not possible to be accurate.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

County Commissioners.

The Board met last night in regular session.

Application of Dr. H. F. Murphy, for a permit to construct a small bridge over the creek at Washington, was referred back to him for a statement of the cost, the Chairman being authorized to contract for the same.

The County Commissioners, after a hearing, voted to grant a permit to the Board, to be issued to the State, to draw on the County Treasurers, to the sum of $300, to be used to appropriate School Fund to Figueras.

The Chairman was authorized to go to the County Treasurers, for taxes, or expenses paid by them under Schedule B, for 1873.

Ring-welder was ordered sent to the County Treasurers for proper treatment.

Sam'l. Blossom, at Castle Hayne, T. H. Brown, at Lillington; John Lee, at Baxley; Edward Garrison, at South Washington; and John Smith, at Lumberton, were granted license to retail spirituous liquors.

Adjusted to duty again on the 21st inst., at 8 P. M.—Daily Journal, 8th.

Colonel G. M. McLoud.

We were glad to meet our esteemed soldier friend, Colonel McLoud, of Asheville, in the city yesterday. We have not seen him since the close of the war, and are rejoiced to see that he is well and strong.

This week followed the standard of the gallant Pendleton, with such devotion and courage usual Colonel McLoud will always have a warm place in our heart—he awoke wrapped up in flames. It is not possible to be accurate.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.

Following close upon that in Brunswick county, last week, when Col. Joseph Green lost so many valuable timber on the law by a pine of timber. His house is nearly cut off, but a doctor saved it together again, and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Albert Nance of the town of Morehead city, yesterday morning, our good friend, Captain John McLeod, of Alacance County, who looks like a son of the earth, with undimmed with their health and bayonets, he defied Kirk and his men, and dared them to do their worst.

Captain Moore, visits our city on business and cordially commends the work of the Anti-Slavery League.

Mr. Theobald, of New York, on Saturday afternoon, sent us a report of his services in five days, in favor of which he organized a meeting of Good Templars, and delivered an address before each. At Palmyra, he organized a lodges of 40 members; Weldon, one of 14 members; Henderson, 33 charter members, and Enderfield, 30 charter members.

The Rutherfordton Vindicator says:

We are informed that a number of documents have been found recently in the Lucknow speculation lands sold Monday of last. Court. We should like to see the documents produced, and a report in time.

Mr. Moore is a better citizen than Captain Moore. —Daily Journal, 10th.

Fire Around Eustisville.

In the woods are the fashion now.